

Monthly ABAWD Education & Training Participation Record

Instructions

Able-Bodied Adults Without Dependents (ABAWDs) who aren't working can meet federal ABAWD work rules. They can do this by participating in specific education or training programs for at least 20 hours a week (80 hours a month). If you are exempt from federal ABAWD work rules, you don't need to complete this form.

If you are in an education or training program, take this form to your program provider after the end of each month. Ask them to fill out Part 2 of this form.

You must give the completed form to your local social services district by the 10th of the month following the month(s) that you participate in the education or training program. This shows you are meeting the federal ABAWD work rules. If you don't submit proof of your participation, you may lose your SNAP benefits.

Do not use this form to show proof of high school or college enrollment. Contact your local social services district to learn how to prove you are in high school or college.

If something stops you from attending your education or training program, inform your local social services district about the reason and date(s) you couldn't attend.
