Additional Information Collected During Inspection

Comments

Inspection conducted due to complaint investigation of employees neglecting to wash hands after returning from toilet room. During inspection, observed employees washing hands, using gloves, and using utensils properly during food prep to avoid barehand contact and contamination of food items. Discussed importance of hand washing when returning from toilet room, when hands are soiled and after cough and sneezing. Discussed keeping food levels below rim of sandwich make unit insert and lid on top to keep foods at correct cold holding temperature. Observed adequate levels of quaternary ammonia (400ppm) in sanitizing bay of 3 bay sink using facility's test strips.
